

Welcome!

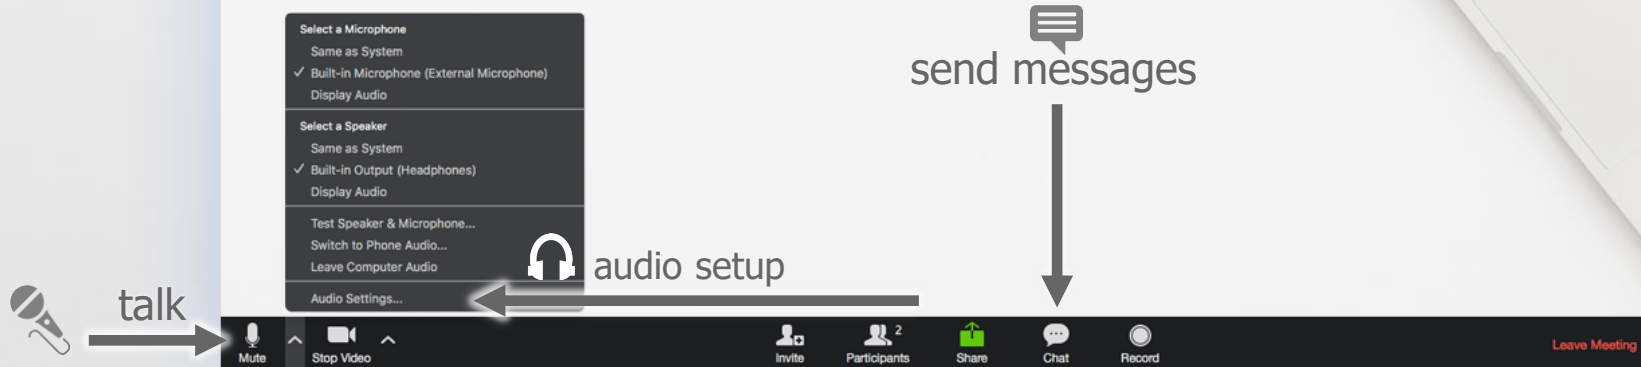

This is a classic class with a small group of students focusing on grammar, vocabulary, and error corrections.

How can I interact with the class?

Take a look at how to use your toolbar.

Quick tip: Can't see the toolbar?

Hover your mouse at the bottom of your screen and it will automatically pop up.

Art

By the end of this lesson, you will be able to:

- describe the art that you like.
- use adjectives to describe art.
- discuss art fairs.

Warm Up

Answer the questions. Listen to your classmates' answers.

- What kind of art is this person making?
- What is this person called?
- What is your favorite type of art?

Vocabulary Match

First, guess what each word means. Then, match the words to their definitions.

sculpture

intense

melancholy

bright

energetic

relaxing

Sad or gloomy

Art made from stone and other hard materials.

Active or kinetic

Calming or peaceful

Colorful or shiny

Extreme or powerful

Vocabulary Fill in the Blank

Complete the sentences with the correct vocabulary words. Then, answer the question.

The famous _____ is made of stone.

Blue, purple, and gray are _____ colors.

The _____ lights in Las Vegas are very exciting.

The photograph of the moving dancer looked very _____.

Many people feel _____ on a rainy day.

The bright, neon colors on the painting are _____. They are difficult to look at.

sculpture

intense

melancholy

bright

energetic

relaxing

Do you think museums are relaxing? Why or why not?

Ranking

What are your three favorite kinds of art? Explain your choice.

painting

I think _____ is the most important because...

sculpture

1. _____

photography

2. _____

fabric art

3. _____

traditional art

Grammar Practice

Talk about using present perfect verb forms. Practice using them in sentences by answering the questions.

In English, you can sometimes use the present perfect tense when you are talking about events in the past.

Present tense	Present Perfect Tense
buy	have bought
see	have seen
visit	have visited

Have you ever bought a piece of art before?

What have you seen in an art gallery?

Have you visited an art museum this year?

Idiom

Talk about this idiom with your teacher and classmates.

A picture is worth a thousand words. = A picture can say more than words.

Example: Wow, that painting is amazing. A picture is worth a thousand words.
Have you seen a picture worth a thousand words? Tell the class about it.

Pronunciation Practice

Listen to your teacher say the words. Practice saying them. Choose the two words that rhyme. Explain your choices.

A.

paint

bright

vow

worth

B.

pant

light

draw hearth

C.

faint

lit

saw birth

Make a sentence with at least two of the words.

Describe and Discuss

Discuss with your class. What do you think? Use your vocabulary words to describe the paintings.

How do you feel when you see each piece of art?

What do you think the artist is trying to say?

Words to Use:

amazing, intense, bright, energetic, inspirational

Tell a Story

Tell a story about your favorite piece of art. What is it? What does it look like? What kind of art is it? Who is the artist? Why is it your favorite?

My favorite piece of art is_____.

The artist is_____.

It is my favorite work of art because_____.

Which story did you like the most? Why?

Reading and Discussion

Read about art fairs and answer the questions with your classmates.

Art fairs are very popular events in major cities. Local artists and craftspeople come to sell their art. A shopper at an art fair can buy jewelry, paintings, drawings, clothes, and home decorations. Most of the artists at art fairs are independent, so the money goes directly to them.

- What are the biggest art fairs in your city?
- What can you buy at these events?
- Have you ever bought something at an art fair? If so, tell the class about it.

Role Play

Choose a role and act it out with a partner.

Role A

1. You are at an art fair with your friend.
2. You see a piece of art that you like.
3. Ask about the price.
4. Decide if you will buy it.

Role B

1. You are selling art at an art fair.
2. Describe your pieces of art.
3. Tell the customer the price.
4. Decide if you will accept a lower price.

Class Project

Work with your class to complete this project.

Your class chooses art for an art gallery. There is a new show coming up. Work together to make a plan. Try to agree.

Which type of art will you show: painting, photography, or sculpture?

What is the mood of the show: melancholy or energetic?

Give an example of a piece of art that you want in the show.

Wrap Up

Talk with your class and answer the questions.

Putting it all together:

- What are some different kinds of art?
- Describe how art can make you feel.
- What is a traditional art in your country?
- Use the present perfect verb form have bought in a sentence.